

Millie Mackintosh

Button-through dresses are having a bit of a moment this season. Chelsea girl Millie's one is ideal for your holiday, as the linen fabric and classic silhouette make for perfect summertime dressing. Style it up with leather sandals and delicate jewellery, or keep it casually cool with some white trainers and a cross-body bag.

Rochelle Humes

Yellow isn't the easiest colour to wear, although it looks fabulous on Rochelle. Take inspo from The Saturdays' beauty and wear it head to toe! Cute slogan tees aren't going anywhere yet, and are a great way to inject a bit of fun to a casual outfit. Wear your sunshine-hued skirt with a Bardot crop top and sandals.

Lottie Moss

Calling all retro fashion fans - dungarees are back! Cute overalls are proving to be a charming staple as they can be easily dressed up or down. If you want to channel an effortlessly chic vibe, style with a simple tee and some woven flats, finishing the look with a straw bag. If classy and sophisticated is your thing, dress your denim one-piece up with a pair of heels, statement earrings and a ruffled blouse, like model Lottie.

Chloe Lewis

Be bold and make a statement with a floral two-piece like TOWIE star Chloe. You can't go wrong when it comes to mixing ruffles with flirty prints and feminine cuts. You don't have to wear them together either, the crop-top would look just as good with a wrap-skirt as it does with the matching trousers. Complete the look with wedges, a raffia bag and gold jewellery.

Kimberley Walsh

If you don't own a floral midi dress yet, now is your chance to get on-board! Kimberley's flattering frock features a classy high neck and adorable angel sleeves. For daytime, style your frock with lace-up espadrilles, or dress it up with some heels and a fascinator for weddings - or a day at the races.
